Results from Micke Grove, April 27, 2013

It had been 14 years (1999) since the Carmichael Golf Club (CGC) had played an event at Micke Grove in Lodi. Due to an early April aeration of the greens, we rescheduled this event from its' original date of April 13. While the greens were still probably a week away from being in very good shape, Micke Grove gave us some interesting golf challenges.

Not an overly long course, the combination of water hazards and hole routing (especially if you do not have any previous course knowledge of this layout) can make this course a tough test. Good golf will be rewarded – but the course can quickly reach out and turn the tables on your golfing round. On a warm Spring day, our 36 players generally enjoyed the challenges that this course had to offer. Seven players broke net 70 (with 9 players shooting better than net par) – with 8 players shooting net 80 or higher.

The 4 Flight winners on this day (along with 2 ties for low net prior to the scorecard playoff), became the next group to qualify for the CGC Tournament of Champions (TOC) event in 2014. The low net of the day, 65, was shot by 3 players – Jay Jackson won the 2nd Flight by 8 strokes, Stella Garin won a tie-breaker in the 3rd Flight (over Ken Worman, who had previously qualified for the TOC at Teal Bend in March). Scott Battenburg won the 1st Flight with a net 67 (winning a tie-breaker from Jay Simi, who also qualifies for the 2014 TOC). Tom Haltom won the 4th Flight with a net 67, winning the Flight by 4 strokes.

Results from Lincoln Hills (Orchard), May 4, 2013

Of the 2 courses at Lincoln Hills, the Orchard course is favored by few players. The first 7 holes tend to chew up golfers and spit them back out – so that by time you reach the 8th Tee (where the course becomes more playable and enjoyable), the prospects of a decent round are considerably dimmed. Within the past month, NCGA raters have been out to the Orchard course to re-rate the course rating and slope – everyone fully expects that these new ratings will more closely reflect the difficulties that this course presents.

On a warm (yet breezy) day, 44 CGC players took their best shots. With only 3 scores under net par, and 19 scores of net 80 or higher – the course took full advantage of the conditions to be the clear winner on this day.

We had four outright winners in the days' 4 Flights. The low net of the day belonged to Greg Paulo, whose net 69 won the 2nd Flight by 4 strokes. Jeanette Turvill, in her first event in the CGC, won the 3rd Flight with a net 70, winning her Flight by 2 strokes. Tom Haltom won his second event in 2013 shooting a net 70, winning the 4th Flight by 2 strokes. Mitch Johnson also won his second event in 2013, with his net 73 leading to a 2 stroke margin of victory in the 1st Flight.

Results from Empire Ranch, May 18, 2013

After many weeks of above average temperatures this Spring in the Sacramento area, we ended up on this day with as nice a Spring day as one could ask for. Empire Ranch has turned into one of our favorite CGC venues, with 50 players taking part of the golfing festivities. The course was in excellent shape – and while the greens were beginning to speed up, they rolled true. One of the nice features about Empire Ranch is that it gives you options – aggressive lines can lead to good scoring (if your on your game), but options are there to play the safe shot and avoid big numbers, if your so inclined.

We might have been able to take the Men back a set of tees in the first couple of flights – but after some tough golfing conditions in our early CGC events in 2013, we thought we would let the players have some opportunities to score. Players responded – with 13 net sub par rounds (20 total rounds of net par or better). There still were 11 rounds of net 80 or higher, the course was no pushover!

With a 50 player field and 5 par 3's, we had 5 Flights on this day. The low score of the day belonged to John McLaughlin, whose net 64 led to a 5 stroke victory (over 3 players) in the 2nd Flight. Net 66's won 3 other Flights – Mike A. Johnson, who rejoined the CGC this past year after an 11 year hiatus, won the 1st Flight (in a scorecard playoff over David DiStefano, in his first CGC event), Jay Jackson won his second event in 2013 – his 66 leading to a 3 stroke margin of victory in the 3rd Flight, while Clark Londquist shot a 66 to win the 4th Flight by 5 strokes (over 2 players). The hottest golfer in the CGC at the moment belongs to Tom Haltom, who won his third straight 2013 CGC event (all in the last 4 weeks), with a net 68 to win the 5th Flight by 2 strokes.

CGC Barbecue – after golf at Empire Ranch, May 18, 2013

Almost since the beginning of the CGC in 1989-1990, the CGC has had an end-of-year Christmas Party. On many of our overnight away trips, we try to have a dinner get together, either at a rental house or at a local restaurant. We've had several discussions about having a get together after a local CGC event – and those discussions finally became a reality when Ken and Judy Worman hosted an 'after' barbecue following our CGC event at Empire Ranch in Folsom on May 18.

We figured upwards of 50 folks (CGC members and spouses) passed through the Worman's kitchen and backyard between 2:00P and 8:00P. Thanks to all of you who brought your favorite appetizer, food or dessert dish – if you didn't get enough to eat, you only have yourself to blame!

Special thanks to Ken and Judy for opening up their home – we've heard nothing but appreciation for the opportunity to get together away from the course both that night and since. We hope there will be future opportunities like this to get together following CGC events.
