Recapping 2012 CGC Events

After 2 years of uneven (and untimely) newsletter reporting on Carmichael Golf Club (CGC) events, we started 2012 with timely reporting of our multiple April 2012 events. As the year progressed, two things got in the way of maintaining this timeliness – 1) a new computer purchase in the Rankin household (with some files not transferred), switching to the Apple computer environment, and the associated learning curve that made many processes more cumbersome in the near term, and 2) after being away from golfing for 11 months, as the summer of 2012 progressed Alan was out on the golf course with increased frequency and intensity (both in playing and managing his physical recovery).

For the remainder of 2012, staying ahead of upcoming CGC events took priority. As we now face the break between the 2012 and 2013 CGC seasons, we can begin to catch up in documenting the 2012 CGC season.

This newsletter will address CGC events during the months of May and June 2012.
